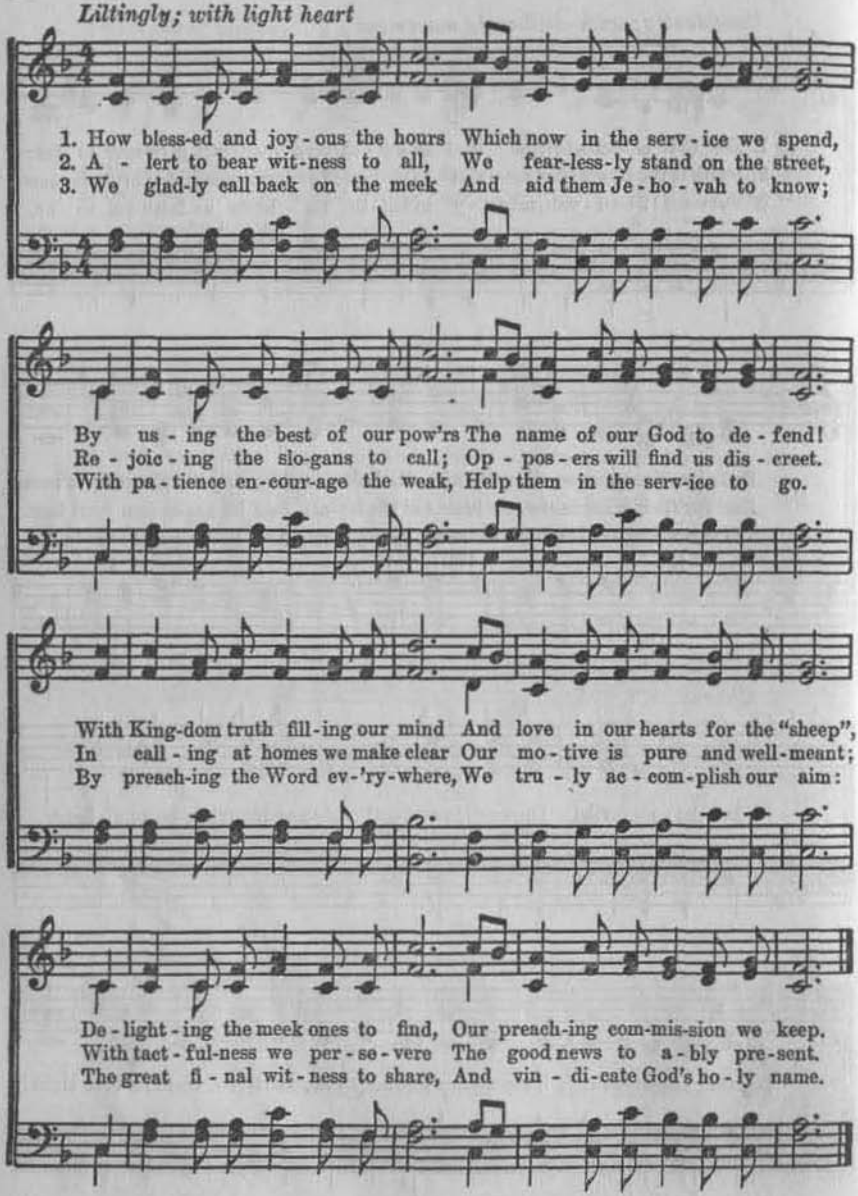
Liltingly; with light heart



1. How bless-ed and joy-ous the hours Which now in the serv-ice we spend,
2. A-lert to bear wit-ness to all, We fear-less-ly stand on the street,
3. We glad-ly call back on the meek And aid them Je-ho-vah to know;
By us-ing the best of our pow'rs The name of our God to de-fend!
Re-joic-ing the slo-gans to call; Op-pos-ers will find us dis-creet.
With pa-tience en-cour-age the weak, Help them in the serv-ice to go.
With King-dom truth fill-ing our mind And love in our hearts for the "sheep",
In call-ing at homes we make clear Our mo-tive is pure and well-meant;
By preach-ing the Word ev-'ry-where, We tru-ly ac-com-plish our aim:
De-light-ing the meek ones to find, Our preach-ing com-mis-sion we keep.
With tact-ful-ness we per-se-vere The good news to a-bly pre-sent.
The great fi-nal wit-ness to share, And vin-di-cate God's ho-ly name.

And all his foes shall lick the dust, For now has come his hour!
Their hel-mets bright a-gainst the sky Bid ig-no-rance and er-or fly;
Their two-edged sword, the Word of God, Their feet with gra-cious ti-dings shod,
Je-ho-vah now makes bare his Arm! Oh, hear the trum-pet's loud a-larm!
They shout a-loud their bat-tle cry: "Christ reigns! O Earth, re-ceive him!"
They walk the way their Mas-ter trod, E'en un-to death they fol-low.
Be wise, you rul-ers, do no harm; You judg-es, own his pow-er!
